COLEMAN NEWS

A Coleman romance had its happy denouement Tue-day verening; when it. M. Nick of the International company's offices staff, and Miss Maud (fillay stole a march on their Iriends and were quiestly married at St. Alban's charch. So, quite was the affair managed and so well was the secret kept by those intrasted with it, that not a soul in Coleman was aware of it asked from those who were to be present, until the announcement was made in Frank the next morning. The ceremony was performed by the a Rev. Webb, Miss L. Young being in the desmal and George H. Dickson, best mian. They all left Coleman immediately after the ceremony and remained at Frank over night. In the morning Mr. and Mrs. Fisk left for the country of the c

Cash System a Success

To the Editor of The Horald;
In an issue of the Frank Paper dated July 4th an aditorial appears which if correct would mean that the cash system adopted by the merchants of Frank during March of this year was a compose failure. What the original and the second of the second to the accumpance of the second to be. "Everybody is satisfied with this approaches system except those who do not want to pay for what they get or in the voweds, the "Geedbast" doesn't like to pay cash as it is not in the prices, we can say that all dry goods gouts furnishings, boots and aloes, etc., have been reduced in most cases to a margin which barely covers expanses. Its rather hard luck, to to have a newspaper in. The Paiss continually merepresenting things, as is common practice with the Frank paper. Of course its ascended for by the peculiar make-up of the editor by the peculiar make-up of the editor by the policy of the Frank paper is to common to att matters as he see them, in one of the things of the peculiar make-up of the ditor has an ananontradicted records of far as, like any kind, so that the occurrence of the color has an ananontradicted records of far as, his date system except those who

The above communication appearable in a recent issue of the Calgary lerald as a reply to a recent editorial in this paper. That it is entirely as and unjustified, every person who read that editorial knows. We did not attack the cash system bus referred to the complaints of local mechanical dull times and sought to point out the reason for business being poor. It may have been unfortunate that in doing age we styled the subject, "failure of the cash system" but at that we do not think it was far wrong, giving as the reason or that failure, the fact that prices are not in keeping with a cash basis.
